“ Oh my, what wonderful memories I have of Lew and me with the Merollis family at Christmas...many years ago. Don perignon, great dinners and such fabulous people! We both loved all of you and I want to extend my most sincere condolences on Carl's passing. My memories of him will always make me smile! Much love from Lois Constantz

“ When I was 18 years old, I called Carl for advise when I was interviewing to be a salesperson at a car dealership in Cleveland, Ohio. His advise was “be yourself”. His advise has served me well throughout my career. He was an authentic person and a great teacher.
