

Cheryl B. White

August 23, 1946 - July 31, 2017

Cheryl B. White (nee Bartlett) entered the heavenly Kingdom, Monday, July 31, 2017 and is at one with her Creator. She died peacefully at home following a courageous battle with cancer. She is survived by her husband, Leonard and son Matthew (Alison) of St. Louis, son Patrick (Jaime) of Dallas; brother William (Anne) of Oregon, and four grandchildren, Eleanor, Thomas, Anna and Amelia.

Born in Chicago in 1946 Cheryl was a few weeks shy of her 71st birthday and 47th year of marriage. She graduated from Fontbonne College, St. Louis and earned a Masters Degree in Nutrition from the University of Missouri. She worked as a nutritionist for ten years in hospitals in Chicago and St. Louis before turning to the full time job of mother and homemaker in which she excelled.

Cheryl gave of herself generously to her family, friends and neighbors and was a faithful, devout Christian with a rich spiritual life. Among her many gifts to the community she was honored as Auxillian of the Year for her volunteer services to St. John's Mercy Hospital.

An avid golfer, reader and accomplished needle pointer, Cheryl's love of flowers was on full display in her beautiful garden that she tended until the very end.

Cheryl's extraordinary heart and spirit will be sadly missed by all whom she touched.

Visitation at Ortmann Stipanovich Funeral Home, 12444 Olive Blvd., Creve Coeur from 4:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Monday, August 7th. A funeral mass will be celebrated at St. Louis Abbey at Saint Anselm Parish on Tuesday, August 8th at 10:00 a.m. with burial following at Bellerive Gardens. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts in her honor may be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital or the St. Vincent DePaul Society.
