

Consolacion P. Millangue M.D.

June 12, 1941 - November 25, 2021

Consolacion P. Millangue M.D., baptized into the hope of Christ's resurrection and reunited with her loving husband on Thursday, November 25, 2021.

Beloved wife of the late Rafael M. Millangue M.D. Loving mother of Cynthia A. Millangue and Rafael Kenneth (Jovelle) Millangue. Proud Lola of Rafael A. and Jovelle Catherine Millangue. Cherished sister of the late Doroteo (Lucy) Paras, Fredesminda Paras, Josefino (Herminia) Paras and Alicia (Benjamin) Legaspi. Dear aunt, godmother, cousin and friend of many.

Connie spent 40 years (and 3 months) practicing medicine. She was affiliated with numerous hospitals in St. Louis, including Homer G. Phillips, Deaconess/Forest Park, Des Peres, and Alexian Brothers/St. Alexius, where she was the first woman physician on staff. During her retirement, she remained active by learning ballroom dancing, participating in medical missions in the Philippines, making pilgrimages to nearby shrines, and spending time with the grandkids.
