Hello, my name is Dolores Hartmann. I was born on January 16, 1920 in Iowa to Agnus and George Huss. I was my parents only child. We lived in Texas for a few years before moving to St Louis, Missouri, which we made our home. I belong to the United Church of Christ. I graduated from Maplewood High School in 1938 and then went on to attend college. After college I went to work for Famous Barr and then later worked for the American Can Company. I married my wonderful husband Theodore in 1949 and together we had five children. I absolutely loved being a stay at home mom and raising my beautiful children. I love spending time with my kids as well as my grandchildren, my great grandchildren and my great-great grandchild. I was also very active in my church. I enjoy dancing, reading, watching movies, music, taking walks and traveling.
