An avid golfer, one of his most cherished endeavors was playing at Sand Hills in Mullen, Nebraska. In his last 27 years, he brought family and friends to experience his love for the course and the people and community of Mullen. He referred to Sand Hills as God's country, where incredible memories were made.

Eddie was a natural athlete and competitor in many sports. Eddie played tennis at Saint Louis High and University. A few of his highlights were competing in the US Open Amateur tennis tournament with his daughter, playing with Arthur Ashe, and being a 13-time golf and tennis champion at Bellerive Country Club.
