

Hazel J. Beckwith

December 5, 1942 - January 21, 2020

Hazel was born in Bell City, Mo on December 5, 1942 to Everett and Mary [nee Shell] Jones. She later married Jesus Munoz Valenzuela, and worked as a Press Operator at Sunoco Oil Company. She loved to shop at the Goodwill and find real bargains, as well as fishing and camping with Jesus. She also enjoyed completing puzzles while listening to Christian channels for uplifting messages and spiritual music.

Survivors include her husband of 33 years: Jesus; one son: Terry Lee Daves; five grandchildren: Katie, Tiffany, Steven, Sarah, Brandon; seven great grandchildren: Kaylee, Mackenzie, Allie, Aubree, Emma, Tyler, Summer; and one sister: Shirley Drawbaugh.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and one son: Larry Berkbigler.

Services: Visitation will be from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm at Bellerive Mausoleum Chapel; followed by the Funeral Ceremony at 1:00 pm. Entombment will be at Bellerive Mausoleum.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

To send flowers or a memorial gift to the family of Hazel J. Beckwith please visit our Sympathy Store.

Cemetery Details

Bellerive Gardens Cemetery

740 North Mason Road
St. Louis, MO 63141
(314) 434-3933
info@bellerivegardens.com
<https://bellerivegardens.com>

Tribute Wall

“ When someone I love dies, something that is familiar and normal to me ends. I must adapt to the new, unwanted reality of life without my beloved mother, now. I feel sadness, anger, despair, or perhaps even a sense of relief that she is no longer suffering. I feel those same feelings and experience a different kind of grief when my loving mother passed away. I love you Mom. Love, Terry Daves

---

Terry Daves - October 25, 2020 at 06:07 PM