“ Echoing Julie Cardamon's comments of Feb. 23: I only became aware of Jane's passing through the Presbytery of Giddings-Lovejoy's "Necrology" report. As the chaplain resource to Spiritual Care Volunteers at Barnes-Jewish Hospital, I want to express my gratitude for Jane's years of faithfulness in visiting patients as a Stephen Minister. She brought kindness and sensitivity to her visits, and joy to me as a quick-learning, initiative-taking volunteer. I am glad that our paths crossed in life and am confident that many patients and their family members felt the same. Deepest condolences, Rev. Julie Allen Berger, retired BJH chaplain

“ Only just learned of Jane's death and wanted to offer my heartfelt condolences. I knew her from Ladue Chapel and Stephen Ministry where she had been a Stephen Leader. Remembering her kindness, sense of humor and sincerity with fondness.
