

Josephnie M Harris

November 22, 1924 - August 30, 2020

Josephine Mae Porter Harris died peacefully on August 30, 2020 in Florissant, Missouri at the age of 95.

Josephine is survived by her sister, Viola Porter, her brother Bob (June) Porter and her sister-in-law, Mary Jane Drawe. Surviving nieces and nephews include Diane (Francis) Happe, Jeffrey Porter, Ken (Bev) Porter, Sue (Mike) Copeland, Laurie Porter, Steve Porter and Debbie (Mike) Renda. She is preceded in death by her parents William H. and Loretta Porter, siblings Kenneth Porter, Oliver Porter & William Porter, her nephew David Porter and her husband, Darroll Harris.

Josephine was born on November 22, 1924 in Jennings, MO. She remained in the family home as a caregiver for both parents. Upon their deaths, she returned to school to earn a Nursing Certificate and worked many years at the Missouri Veterans Home in St. James, Missouri. At the age of 50, she met Darroll Harris and they were married on June 14, 1975. They worked and resided in St. James until his passing in 2002. Josephine moved to The Bridge of Florissant in 2014 to be closer to family.

Josephine was a Christian who spent most of her life caring for others. She was a true homemaker, always sharing her talents with family and friends. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, quilting, gardening, furniture restoration and working on their small farm in St. James.

A private graveside will take place at Bellerive Cemetery in Creve Coeur, Missouri. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Samaritan's Purse.
