

Landon Ryan Johnson

October 15, 1998 - March 25, 2019

Landon Ryan Johnson, 20, went to be with the Lord, March 25, 2019. He was born on October 15, 1998 in Alexandria, Louisiana to Joshua Browning and Angela Geier. Landon was the quintessential American young man, he loved his family, was a loyal friend to all, and had an indescribable charismatic charm that had always drawn people to him. Landon was a young man that always put his family first and made sure that everyone knew that he loved them very much. Landon worshipped his little brother and sisters, they were names that were never far from his lips. He was their greatest protector and would move mountains to ensure their safety. He shared a strong bond with his mother, it was so powerful that it was the true definition of the beautiful relationship between mother and son. Landon was a very social person, he had a way of making friends with everyone. He had such a calm nature that even his voice was so tranquil, which always made him one of easiest people to talk for hours on end. One of the most amazing traits of Landon was that he had such a big heart that he was able to light up any room that he walked into. Landon was sarcastically funny, a St Louis Cardinals fan, loved to travel, driving around with his best friends and music. Landon was sweet boy and most importantly he was beloved by all.

Landon was preceded in death by his father Joshua Ryan Browning. He is survived by his parents Angela and Nathan Geier; brother and sisters Breckin Johnson, Ella Geier and Savannah Geier; Grandparents Kevin and Rosalina

Johnson, Hermelinda Johnson, Jane and Ron Freeman, John and Ann Browning, Timothy and Denise Geier, aunts and uncle Nichole and Vadim Johnson, Catherine Browning, Michele Austin, Catherine Geier and Elizabeth Geier.
