Margie was not only a wife and mother to six kids but a dear friend and confidant to many throughout her life. She had a competitive side to her. She loved playing tennis, golf trips with her friends, playing Bridge, and even a game of Horse on the driveway. She loved to walk. You'd find her every morning back in the day walking Chesterfield Mall with her friends. She loved to cook and bake. She had a sweet tooth, so homemade dessert was served every night after dinner.
