“ You were so proud of your accomplishments in school (earning nearly straight As), that you attended college to study acting for a semester and that you sang with Uncle Everett and danced on the Riverboat in downtown St. Louis. You loved music. You danced in the play at Kratz Elementary School in Toyland as the lead doll and I was so proud of you then. You told me in amazement how your mom, Nettie Gerrein, made all your costumes and made sure you were at all your lessons. She also made your prom dresses. Your first job was as secretary and the employer hired you even though he said you were too young and you excelled in that position. You also told me that you were well taken care of and that, in part, fell to your brother, Tom Gerrein who took you anywhere you wanted to go. I know you wanted people to know these things even though, I'm sure, you told them, here it is again, as you wished. I recall you belting out Barbara Streisand tunes to the record player at home. I hope that's what you're doing at the Pearly Gates. Love, Diana Ewers

“ Pat was so special to me and our whole family. She was such a classy woman. She was always well dressed all the time. We shared a love for hats. She spoke beautiful words all the time and was always positive. We have many wonderful memories that we will always treasure. She loved to talk of the past especially her dancing. She was a jewel.

Pat and my mother Delores were life time friends. They truly were examples of what a good friendship means.

Pat smiled all the time and would always brighten a rainy day.

We are proud to call Pat and the Whole family our extended family.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all

“ Grandma was a spitfire, and loved the spotlight. She had lots of good stories, and gave good advice. We didn't get to visit much, but we had many many long talks. I never knew what new crazy pattern her newest sewing project would come in, and her great -granson Keaton loved the ever changing pillow case selection. We love grandma, and she will be greatly missed. I'm sure she's already putting on a whole production, dancing and singing with the energy of her youth.

Love you always grandma,
Ian, Alexis, and Keaton
