

Patricia Stone Lintzenich

June 18, 1938 - October 13, 2022

Patricia Stone Lintzenich, 84, of St. Louis County passed away at home.

Pat grew up in Kansas City. She attended Drake University in Des Moines then returned to her hometown where she helped the underprivileged community as a social worker and established her own collection agency.

She moved to St. Louis in 1967 where she raised a family and enjoyed many friendships and the company of her beloved dogs, cats, and books. Pat was a world traveler and a celebrated real estate agent, painter, photographer, patron of the arts, chef, culinary arts instructor and host. Her parties were original and legendary, including her iconic Bad Taste Party.

Few knew of the health challenges she faced throughout her life as she preferred to listen to the problems of others. She provided comfort, food and at times a home for those who needed it.

Pat is predeceased by parents Mark and Mildred Stone, and her sister Beverly.

Pat is survived by her husband of 55 years, her sons Mark and Joseph Lintzenich, foster daughter Yvonne Black and grandchildren Miranda, Preston, Cooper, and Nathan.
