

Lt. Col. Robert Charles Lewis USAF (Ret.)

August 4, 1948 - November 15, 2024

Lt. Col. Robert Charles Lewis, USAF (Ret.) age 76, baptized into the hope of Christ's resurrection, Friday, November 15, 2024.

Beloved husband of Anne Grace Lewis (nee Young); dear father of the late Matthew Lewis and the late Kevin Lewis, Katherine (Dru) Jacobs; proud PopPop of Violet and Gibson, Max, Darcy, Delaney and Finley, and Kayleigh, Marin, Carter and Dylan; brother of Audrey Adams, and the late F. Burt Lewis.

He was born on August 4, 1948 in Upper Darby, PA, son of Frank Burt and Grace Laura (nee Gillis) Lewis. Robert was raised in Tucson, AZ where he met his wife of 52 years. He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Arizona and obtained his Juris Doctor degree from Saint Louis University School of Law. Robert served active duty in the US Air Force, Missouri Air National Guard, and Air Force Reserve. A commercial pilot for 33 years, the highlight of his career was flying 747-400's internationally for United Airlines. His adventurous spirit took him around the globe, and his generosity knew no bounds. He said his family, especially Anne, was his "True North."
